

We're against religion in public schools!

It's agaist our relationship to have a religion!

Type in you meeting time, day, and location in the box here. Print off at home, school, or a professional printer (Kinkos, Office Max.....) Print them in color or black and white. Remember, keep them looking good, if you use colored paper, make sure it is readable! Be creative in the locations you put them. Examples: bathroom stalls, next to clocks, in stairwells, anywhere people's eyes go to naturally! Put them in strange places that make people wonder what it is, they walk up to it just to see who put a flyer in such an odd spot. Thanks for promoting your campus ministry and check out our website for more resources or call us!

You have the right
to remain silent.
You also have the right
to share your faith
with others.

And you can share
the First Amendment
with them, too.
Remember, there's faith
in freedom.

Anyone tells you God's not allowed at
school, just tell 'em,
you'd bet even money
they're wrong.

In God We Trust.

If you're ever told
your faith must be private,
just publicly mention the
First Amendment.

Go ahead, speak up.

Not only is it an affront to God,

it's an offense against

the First Amendment.

Our Founding Fathers
often held church services inside the Capitol, and even prayed together
for hours before voting
on new laws.

Guess they didn't intend Church and state to be that separate after all. If they could keep things straight, why can't we?

you can't talk about your faith, guess you'll
just have to talk
about censorship.

It's your First Amendment right to freely exercise your faith.

Anything less is wrong.

The ACLU thinks it
took God out of school.
Maybe they don't know
God's take on that!
